St Chad's Newsletter

8th November 2019

"At St. Chad's, we grow in the light of Christ, to share his love and reflect the gospel values."

Year 5 were magnificent in their performance of The Tempest at the Old Rep Theatre last night. Those of you luckily enough to see it would've been just as proud as I was. Well done to the staff who led it but especially the children who acted and sang so professionally.

Thank you to all of you for making Parents' Evening such a success. We tried starting earlier this year which seemed to work out really well. We will do the same in the Spring Term. If you didn't get a chance to look at your child's books for any reason, it's not too late. Please make an appointment with their teacher.

Many of the children have donated to the 'Poppy Appeal' this year and are wearing their various remembrance apparel!! This Sunday is 'Remembrance Sunday' where there will be wreathes of poppies laid all over the country to mark the many that have died in conflicts involving servicemen and women from the UK and the Commonwealth. There will be a two minute silence at 11am on Monday 11th here in school.

Masses at the Cathedral are:-
Saturday at 4.30pm (First Mass for Sunday)
Sunday at 9am and 11am. 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Luke 20:27-38. "Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive."

Our Netball Team had a very good day yesterday winning three of the four matches they played. They are currently joint leaders in the league. Miss Dartnell would like to mention Jevontae's sportsmanship - a special well done to him for having such a positive attitude.

KS1 – croak

If someone croaks something they say it in a low, rough voice. When a frog or bird croaks, it makes a low, harsh sound.

Ks2 –intrigue

If something, especially something strange, intrigues you, it interests you and you want to know more about it.

It was a strange feeling coming out of Villa Park last Saturday. We'd lost to a last-minute Liverpool winner but I couldn't have been more proud of the team. On Sunday, we travel up the M6 to Wolverhampton to play local rivals Wolves. I hope it's not Fr Tim who's smiling that evening!!

Y1 have the best attendance this week with 99.66%. They were our final winners of the last half term so well done to them on back-to-back wins!

Star of the week this week is Djovani who has shown real improvement in his work and his confidence.

Winners of our virtues certificates are Amen, Dontae, Abigail C, Gidon, Ayaana & Kaidan.
