St Chad's Newsletter

29th November 2019

"At St. Chad's, we grow in the light of Christ, to share his love and reflect the gospel values."

What a very busy week!! I have to say, it's weeks like this that show what a great team we have here at St Chad's: pupils, staff, parents and governors.

On Sunday, we have a School and Parish Mass so it would be great to see many of our families at the Cathedral at 9am to celebrate Mass on the first Sunday of Advent. Fr Tim came in to school this morning to invite all of the children personally.

You will have noticed that your child is coming home with an Advent Calendar today. As I mentioned previously, they have been donated to the school by 'The Wesleyan' so a special thank you to them for their generosity.

A reminder that the Christmas Performance for Years 2-6 will be at the Cathedral on the 17th December from 5pm. There will be more details closer to the time but it will be a great way to start the Christmas Celebrations.

You will be aware from the letter you received on Tuesday that this week we have been inspected.

We hope to have the full report available to parents shortly after we return back to school in the new year. Thank you to the parents who took the time to speak to the inspector on Wednesday morning, and the children for their excellent behaviour as always.

Masses at the Cathedral are:-
Saturday at 4.30pm (First Mass for Sunday)
Sunday at 9am and 11am. The first Sunday of Advent.

Matthew 24:37-44. "So stay awake because you do not know the day your master is coming."

Don't forget our Christmas Raffle starts next week. Mrs Azadeh will be in the hall from Monday selling tickets at 50p each. All money raised will be going to charity.

KS1 - rare

Something that is rare, does not happen very often.

KS2 -peculiar

If you describe someone or something as peculiar, you think they are strange or unusual, sometimes in an unpleasant way.

A great win for Villa last week and a good performance too! This Sunday, we travel to Manchester United which is always a daunting task. Let's hope for the best, play well and see what happens!!

Y3 has the best attendance this week with 99%. Well done to them. Let's not let the cold and wet get to us!!

Star of the week this week is Oliwia (Y6) She's a role model for the other children in the class!

Winners of our virtues certificates are Dareion, Calvin, Scott, Sophia, Ricardo, Amika & Keyla.
